The 5th Dimension comes to 5th & D

Intelligent, beautiful, and talented are the words frequently used to describe glamorous Florence LaRue, original member of "The 5th Dimension."

Whether on stage performing, lecturing, serving as a celebrity judge for beauty pageants, or championing the causes of abused children; mental, physical and spiritual health; or the Special Olympics, Miss LaRue, six-time Grammy winner, juggles her roles as actress, entertainer, speaker, songwriter, author, and humanitarian with the same electric perfection that she devotes to her singing.

Appearing as a special guest on numerous television shows, Florence considered it a great blessing to have been a member of the Billy Graham Crusade choir in 2004.

But NOW--are you ready for this?--on April 15 Miss LaRue will be coming to the Wordnet studios to tape an interview with Father Mike for our television show, "The Power of Love"!

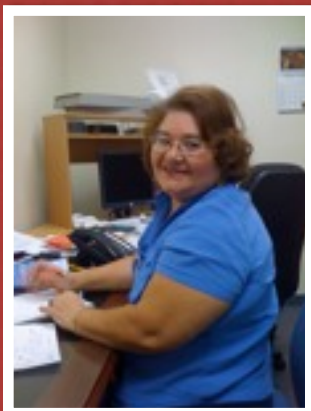

Florence and Fr. Mike have been friends for a long time. She clearly shines for God, grateful for her gifts and blessings, and is eager to see God's plans for her future. Wordnet is just as eager to share God's love in her beautiful story on our show.

That without which.....

O Henry once said: "If it wasn't for the farmers, WHO would we do!?" This can't be said of these volunteers who have stepped up to the plate and made much possible at Wordnet Productions.

John, Annie and Lois do many things to make everything possible. You may even catch them on the phone when calling in. To paraphrase O Henry: WHAT would we do without their help?
